Prominent Mormon Official Here For Conference of Local Stake

A prominent official of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon) will address a conference of the Redondo Stake of the Church in San Pedro, Saturday and Sunday.

Elder George Q. Morris, a member of the Council of Twelve Apostles, will be the visitor.

The general conference sessions will be conducted at 9:30, 2, and 7, Sunday in San Pedro Ward Chapel, 1678 W. 9th St.

The meetings are open to the public, announced the stake president, Leslie L. Prestwich, 2707 W. 182nd St.

In addition to his church duties, Elder Morris is president and general manager of Elias Morris and Sons Co.

Included in the stake are 11 wards (local congregations) in Torrance, Hawthorne, Wilington, Redondo Beach and San Pedro.

Each ward and stake is self-governed by lay members who serve voluntarily. The worldwide missionary system is also self-supporting. Most missionaries are young men and women who leave schools and jobs to serve two to three year terms in full-time proselyting work.

Four times each year, regional conferences are held in the stakes. Church-wide conferences are held twice each year, in April and October, in the famed Mormon Tabernacle in Salt Lake City.
